

Thursday
February 6, 2020
5:30 – 7:00
Houston, TX

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators North America Branch
Young Members Group cordially invites you to:

Pursuing a Career in International Law Happy Hour

DETAILS

When: February 6, 2020

Time: 5:30 – 7:00 pm

Where: South Texas College of Law Houston, Emilie Slohm Conference Room

Description of Event

How do you pursue a career in international law and what does it mean to practice international law? Come find out from law firm and in-house counsel practicing in different areas of international law including international arbitration, transactions, and human rights. Our panelists will discuss their day-to-day practice, how they arrived at their career paths, and advice they wish they would have known as a student.

Speakers:

Daniela Bravo, International Arbitration Associate, King & Spalding (moderator)

Brian Jacobi, International Arbitration Associate, King & Spalding

Anais Romo, Compliance Attorney, Trading Operations and Logistics, Atlantic Trading & Marketing

Danny Avila II, International Arbitration and Latin American Transactions, Reed Smith

Silvia Martin, Corporate, Finance, and Investment Associate, King & Spalding

About the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators is the world's leading qualifications and professional body for dispute avoidance and dispute management. CIArb is passionate about promoting a harmonious society and helping people and organizations avoid, manage and resolve conflict through their global network of over 16,000 members across 133 countries in 41 branches. As a not-for-profit UK registered charity, CIArb works in the public interest for the promotion, facilitation and development of all ADR methods and provides education and training for arbitrators, mediators, adjudicators and users of ADR services. To find out more, please visit www.ciarb.org.