

OCTOBER 2022 NEWS AND EVENTS

CI Arb
evolving to resolve
North America Branch

Dear Members,

The tree leaves are starting to turn (hopefully in your area soon enough) and we think about quiet enjoyment with wine and good friends as Fall 2022 swings into high gear. Speaking of high gear (do you like that transition?), NAB has a packed October 2022 Newsletter. There are so many bold announcements, you will be hard pressed not to calendar more than one item for attendance and review. I emphasize in this fourth newsletter the April 14–16, 2023 NAB Members' Retreat (see below).

Read about the latest arbitration case from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, The University of Notre Dame (USA) In England v. TJAC Waterloo, LLC; ZVI Construction Co., LLC. The Opinion of the Court is here.

Finally, a hearty congratulations to our five featured members this month for their accomplishments and featured profiles in our Newsletter.

Happy Halloween!

News About Members

The newsletter has expanded to report news about Members. If you have something to report, please email that information to newsletter@ciarbnab.com. To ensure the newsletter goes out the first business day of each month, it is requested that information for the November 2022 newsletter be submitted by October 14, 2022.

When participating in a program or event of another organization, please remember to include in event fliers and publications, if possible, your post-nominal designations such as FCI Arb. In addition to showcasing credentials you have earned, doing so helps all members by raising recognition of CI Arb and, by association with you, helping to demonstrate that CI Arb members are highly qualified individuals who have been credentialed by what in our opinion is the world's leading ADR credentialing organization.
