Happy New Year NAB Members!

I hope everyone had a great holiday season unless you were flying last week and subject to canceled flights. Let's be proactive in 2023 on networking with other NAB members. Make it one of your New Year resolutions to register and attend our First Annual Members Retreat in April 2023. See below in this newsletter for the registration links and more details. Hope to see you in Santa Fe in April!

Read about the Coinbase, Inc. v. Abraham Bielski case now pending in the U.S. Supreme Court. The question presented per the Court's docket is:

Under § 16(a) of the Federal Arbitration Act, when a district court denies a motion to compel arbitration, the party seeking arbitration may file an immediate interlocutory appeal. This Court has held that an appeal "divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." Griggs v. Provident Consumer Disc. Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982) (per curiam). The question presented is: Does a non-frivolous appeal of the denial of a motion to compel arbitration oust a district court's jurisdiction to proceed with litigation pending appeal, as the Third, Fourth, Seventh, Tenth, Eleventh and D.C. Circuits have held, or does the district court retain discretion to proceed with litigation while the appeal is pending, as the Second, Fifth, and Ninth Circuits have held?

All briefs are available on the U.S. Supreme Court docket and can be accessed here.

Congratulations to our 2 featured members this month for their accomplishments and profiles in our Newsletter!

A Message from NAB Chair, David E. Sharp FCI Arb

Happy 2023 to all of you! I am humbled to be the Chair of an organization that counts so many top professionals among its members. As Chair, I have an "open door policy" by which I mean that members should feel free to contact me anytime with ideas for events or ways to make NAB better for its members. My email is dsharp@sharplawhouston.com or you may contact any NAB Director or Chapter Chair, all of whom have contact information on the NAB website on the Board of Directors or Chapters pages under the "About" tab.

I hope that as many of you as possible will register and attend the First Annual Members Retreat that will be held in Santa Fe on April 14–16. There is a fabulous educational component planned along with an opportunity to get to know NAB members from all across NAB's vast geographic area. And, the setting is fabulous. There will be other great programs this year, including continuation of the Ask the Arbitrator webinar series. For now, I hope you will join me in Santa Fe, get involved with NAB, and contact me or other NAB leaders with your suggestions and ideas.

New Email Address? If your email address changes, please remember to advise memberservices@ciarb.org and communications@ciarbnab.com

John McArthur FCIArb and Northern California Chapter Chair has written a new, scholarly book, The Reasoned Arbitration Award in the United States: Its Promise, Problems, Preparation, and Preservation. Receive a 10% discount on online orders by using the code NABCIARB. Learn about the book and order here: <https://arbitrationlaw.com/books/reasoned-arbitration-award-united-states-its-promise-problems-preparation-and-preservation>. John’s book explains his view that that “silent” awards are not less prone to challenge and not necessarily cheaper to prepare than reasoned awards, criticizes six ways awards often fail to give meaningful reasons, and argues that U.S. courts have improperly tended to uphold such awards as “reasoned.” The work has John’s extensive analysis of each ground of vacatur and its success rate based on his study of vacatur opinions in Westlaw for 2010–2017 with a link to appendices with synopses of the vacatur opinions for exceeding powers, manifest disregard, violating public policy, and evident partiality. It also has appendices for awards he treats as well reasoned and for those he views as not so. John will be speaking on awards at the upcoming NAB Members Retreat in Santa Fe in April.

Among his honors, he was inducted into the initial Legal 500 Hall of Fame for international arbitration, was recognized as a Trailblazer for White Collar Litigation by the National Law Journal and was presented the Light of Justice in Action Award by the Texas

Defender Service. He has served as Chairman of Holocaust Museum Houston and as General Counsel for various sports teams, including the Houston Rockets. Michael is also an adjunct professor of international arbitration at the University of Texas School of Law. Michael graduated Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Rice University and with honors from the University of Texas School of Law.

News About Members

The newsletter has expanded to report news about Members. If you have something to report, please email that information to newsletter@ciarbnab.com. To ensure the newsletter goes out the first business day of each month, it is requested that information for the February 2023 newsletter be submitted by January 17, 2023.

When participating in a program or event of another organization, please remember to include in event fliers and publications, if possible, your post–nominal designations such as FCIArb. In addition to showcasing credentials you have earned, doing so helps all members by raising recognition of CIArb and, by association with you, helping to demonstrate that CIArb members are highly qualified individuals who have been credentialed by what in our opinion is the world’s leading ADR credentialing organization.

Get involved with one (or more) of the NAB Committees. Communications (and its social media subcommittee), Programs, and Training would definitely appreciate help. Contact information is on the website or email communications@ciarbnab.com to get directed to the right person(s).

Young Members should become part of the young members group (YMG). If you are not on the YMG's membership roster, contact Imad Khan at lkhan@winston.com.

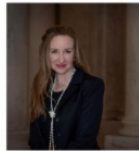

Student Members, please share the information about free student memberships with those of your classmates who have not joined. More details are available on our website.

Finally, don't forget to join, if you have not, the NAB LinkedIn Group. This group is open to all who may be interested in ADR (not limited to NAB members). If you have friends who ought to join, let them know about it. There are currently over 280 members, mostly NAB members. There, you can post questions, articles, and anything that might be of interest to members and comment on our monthly "What Do You Think?" feature about ADR.
